

FRED DEMATTEIS SCHOOL OF ENGINEERING AND APPLIED SCIENCE INDUSTRY SPEAKER SERIES

Modular Construction Technology

featuring

Ralph Lambert '84

President and CEO, Axis Construction Corp.

Member of the DeMatteis School Dean's Advisory Board

Axis Construction Corp. is a premier construction management, contracting, and modular construction firm serving the entire tri-state area. With more than 40 years' experience in the construction industry and a background in corporate finance, strategic planning, and business development, Ralph Lambert helped move Axis into health care, retail, and higher education – building relationships with clients such as New York University, Northwell Health, Wyndham Hotels, Catholic Health, New York Institute of Technology, Molloy University, and Long Island University. The company also is responsible for the renovation of Hofstra's Weller Hall, including the Center for Career Design and Development.

Learn how Mr. Lambert took Axis Construction Corp. from a small local business to a large construction organization that is one of the most well-respected companies in the industry.
